SCAM INFORMATION

SAFETY ALERT

March 4, 2013

Over this past weekend Fauquier County residents were targeted by a scam that has plagued neighboring communities recently.

It was reported on Saturday, March 2, 2013, at noon, in the 11500 block of Kings Hill Rd, in the Remington/Opal/Bealeton area of Fauquier County that a female came to the caller's door stating she was opening a new business in the area and wanted to clean the caller's carpets. The female was holding a bottle of Febreeze.

The caller also observed a male individual parked in the caller's driveway in a tan in color SUV.

The female is described as possibly oriental, slender, approximately 5'6" tall with shoulder length brown hair with some color in it as if she attempted to dye her hair.

This person went to another residence in the 11400 block of Tilia Lane after leaving Kings Hill Rd.

On Sunday, March 3rd, a resident in the 11200 block of Falling Creek Drive in Bealeton reported the same subject came to this residence.

Further description of the SUV is tan or light brown with a large dent on the passenger side rear bumper.

Incidents similar in nature have been reported in the Fredericksburg/Spotsylvania area.

If you encounter this person or similar individuals do not answer your door. Attempt to obtain a tag number and call 9-1-1 immediately.
